12 Hotels Perfect for Travelers Flying Solo

Graduate Athens in Athens, Georgia

The Hotel: All the co-ed spirit of college, with decidedly grown-up comforts (Malin + Goetz bath amenities, plush tufted headboards, and fresh flowers among them).

The Solo Spin: Set in a 19th-century foundry near the University of Georgia, the Graduate is chock-full of vintage art, quirky nods to the school's Bulldogs mascot, and pieces that speak to the city's musical history (it was the birthplace of bands like R.E.M and The B-52s). You'll feel part of a community hanging out in the lobby and adjacent Iron Works Cafe—these spaces buzz with laptop-toting guests and locals—or at the on-site Foundry Bar & Mill, which regularly features live music. There's also an off-campus shuttle that can take you around town for free, upon request.
