Graduate Minneapolis

"We are all students," spelled out in neon lettering, hovers over the lobby of the newly opened Graduate Minneapolis. Situated on the University of Minnesota campus, this is the 10th and largest of the hotels in the Graduate's portfolio, each set in a university town. The 304 übercozy rooms boast Norwegian- and Northern Minnesota-inspired décor, while keycards feature notable locals, such as Prince and Judy Garland. Three lobby food carts offer quick bites, or visitors can nosh on pub grub at the onsite restaurant, The Beacon. graduatehotels.com
